CHARACTER TRAIT: COOPERATION

November 1, 2011

Dear Parents,

As we enter the month of November and begin to focus on the character trait, cooperation, it is fitting that our students have witnessed this trait through your personal examples this past weekend. It took many dedicated hands all working together, cooperating with each other, to make our Fall Fest Haunted Carnival a success. As our seventh graders shared at assembly this morning, working with others, rather than alone, we can accomplish much more, and, have fun while doing it. Thank you for making this a reality for our students.

November will bring with it further opportunities exemplifying the character trait of cooperation. Next week you will have an opportunity to meet with your child's homeroom teacher for his/her first quarter conference. Together—parents, teachers and students—will look at student's strengths as well as set goals for further growth. Working and cooperating as a team will be the recipe for success.

We will also have cause as a nation and as a community, to pause and reflect on the many blessings we are given daily. It will be that gratitude that will lead us to respond to the invitation to share with those who do not have those same blessings in their lives. Stay tuned for more to come!

FROM THE OFFICE

Thank you to all families who have already sent in their November tuition payments. Statements were sent out last week and the office appreciates your prompt attention to this.

Please look for parent conference information in attached schedules. Should you need to make a change, please contact the teacher as soon as possible.

As indicated in the weekly schedule, there is no school on Friday, Nov 4 for grades K—8. Teachers will be attending a diocesan in-service. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Join us Thursday evening, Nov 3 at 7:00 PM for a talk on the new Roman Missal. This will be an excellent opportunity to prepare for changes to come this Advent.

PTG NEWS

Our 2011 Fall Fest Haunted Carnival is now a part of our BSPS history. It was an awesome event enjoyed by all who attended—students with their families and friends, parishioners, and alumni alike. There was something for everyone to enjoy. We congratulate and thank:

- Jo Ann Molter and her fantastic committee for their care in planning and orchestrating this event.
- Gracie Gagliano and her helpers in coordinating the car raffle; which by the way, Fr. Jim now has a new best friend—Michael Mitroff—the winner of the car.

We hope that you will be able to join us at Corvette Diner tomorrow evening. Bring the attached flyer with you. See you there!
